SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

At approximately 4:29 a.m. today a newspaper delivery employee reported she had been shot at while delivering papers in the rural Lincoln area. She reported as she delivered the paper to 1728 Hungry Hollow Road a male subject exited the front door and fired a handgun at her. She notified law enforcement, and the Placer County Sheriff's Office dispatched several units to the call. As these units arrived, they also reported someone shooting at them. They secured the residence and called for additional support in the form of the Special Enforcement Team and the Hostage Negotiation Team. While awaiting the arrival of the teams, the deputies located two men whom they felt were associated with the incident at the residence and detained them.

Upon the arrival of the specialized teams and additional support units, negotiators were able to establish contact with the 3 subjects inside the residence. After a brief negotiation the subjects surrendered peacefully to deputies and were all detained.

Investigation revealed Martinez and Camarillo, who were the subjects detained outside the residence by deputies, were involved in the shooting, and they were both placed under arrest for Assault With A Deadly Weapon. The other three subjects were released with no charges. The investigation is continuing with additional charges possible.
